

Mini Spray Dryer

This spray dryer is used to dry aqueous solutions or suspensions in one operating process that employs liquid atomization to produce droplets that are dried to individual particles when moved in a hot gaseous drying medium. A spray dryer consists of a feed pump, atomizer, air heater, air dispenser, drying chamber, and systems for exhaust air cleaning and powder recovery/separator.

